

Child Neglect

A Strategic Priority for Swindon Safeguarding Partnership

The experience of neglect during childhood can have significant, long lasting and pervasive consequences, affecting all aspects of a child's development. These effects include cognitive and other physical development, educational achievement, children and young people's emotional wellbeing, and behavioural difficulties.

For more information about Child Neglect Swindon Safeguarding Partnership - Neglect
or scan the QR code

For more information about Professional Curiosity Swindon Safeguarding Partnership - Professional Curiosity
or scan the QR code

For more information about Information Sharing and Consent Swindon Safeguarding Partnership - Information Sharing
or scan the QR code

