

Early Help Record and Plan for Childminders

Course Description: Childminders are a key part of the Early Help and intervention process as they may be in the most frequent contact with children and their families. In Swindon, the Early Help Record and Plan (EHR&P) supports children, young people and families with additional needs through early identification, swift intervention and a planned, coordinated response. This training covers the practical use of tools and opportunities to build relationships with families, empowering them to jointly assess their needs and identify how to achieve improved outcomes. The training will cover guidance on the Early Help process and introduces the Early Help Record and Plan paperwork that we have adopted in Swindon.

Target Group: This course is specifically designed for childminders. In addition to Level 2+ Child Protection training, the course is for childminders who may be in contact with children and/or parents/carers who may need to provide support children and families at the Early Help stage of intervention or wish to find out more about the process.
