Gangs, groups or drug networks that supply drugs from urban to suburban areas across the country, including market / coastal towns, using dedicated mobile phone lines ('deal lines').

They exploit children and vulnerable adults to move drugs and money to and from the urban area, and to store the drugs in local markets.

They will often use intimidation, violence and weapons, including knives, corrosives and firearms.

- County Lines Facts
  - Wiltshire Crack/Heroin Market is £48k per day
  - 90% of County Lines in Wiltshire originate in London
  - Each dealer line turns over £1k to £3k per day
  - Children enticed via glamourisation of 'gang culture' via social media
  - Metropolitan Police have launched Op Orochi to tackle County Lines emanating from London

A COUNTY lines gang brought in tens of thousands of pounds-worth of heroin and crack cocaine into Swindon, a court heard.

Now, the couple caught driving drugs to Swindon from London have been jailed for a total of 10 years after admitting being concerned in the supply of class A drugs.

Swindon Crown Court heard Dawkins, 37, and Schafer-Nolan, 24, had made scores of trips from the capital to Wiltshire last year in order to supply drugs for the Jay3for20 drugs line. Dawkins travelled down either in his BMW, a hire car or by train. His co-accused made the trip in her Audi A3
